BHERMAN-THACKARA.

Brilliant Army and Navy Wedding. The marriage of Miss Eleanor Mary Sherman and deutenant Alexander Montgomery Thackara, of the Navy, will take place at General Sherman's cus, menageris, mureum and everything ever exresidence, No. 817 Fiftcenth street, next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Father Boyle, pastor of 81. Maithew's, will officiate. There will be present also, by invitation, Father Healy, S. J., president of Georgetown College, Father Rochford, pastor of 81. Dominic's, and Father Bromilit, secretary of the Board of Catholic Indian Missions. Only the relatives and intimale friends of the family and the President and Secretaries of war and Navy will witness the ceremony, for which there are invitations altogether distinct and fewer in number than for the reception, which will follow half an hour later. To this, however, the number is necessarily, limited, on account of the size of the holose, and the worlding parly will be almost exclusively Army and Navy. The bride, as is well-known, is the third daughter of Goo scal-Sherman, and the groom, who is of the Navy, has an excellent record, and comes from a family well known and highly respected in Philadelphia. Miss S. is a strict Catholic and Lieutenant T. is a non-Catholic only and just a Protestant, and manifests his cordinal and unqualified acquisecence in the religious views and obligations of the haly of his choice. After the wedding the couple will take a short pleasure trip, and return to stay with the bride's parcuits until some time during the cutning summer, when the groun expects to be ordered on a three years cruise. Although the weelding will the comparatively quiet, especially as contrasted with the brilliant nuptints of the brind's eldest sister a few years ago at St. Aloysius, it will be a reobserche and clegant affine, comparing alike with the dignited position and unostentiates manifests for the family of the General of the Army.

ers," which was performed so successfully some weeks ago. It was in every respect a most enjoyable evening and one that will long be remembered by the large and appreciative audience whose good fortune it was to be present. As the pupils all performed their parts so perfectly twould be a difficult task to make any distinction, still the repeated encores for Miss Katle Ayimer was proof that her sweet voice had met with special favor with her hearers, and the Misses Richey, Taiburtt, Taylor and Jones fully sustained the fair favor they achieved at the previous performance. The overture by Miss Minnie Sheckels, accompanied by Miss Mary Merritt, was very profiting rendered and speaks well for the attention pails, Miss Katle Jones desgrees credit for the admirable manner it which she obsyed her double character, for, owing to the sheaves of the young lady east for the part of Thistolown, she was called on a the last hour to fill the part, without any chance for practice.

A Tedious Trial.

The trial of George Brown, indicted for false swearing in connection with the procuring of a pension in the name of Sally Vaugin, drags its slow length along in the Criminal court before Justice James. Yesterday the Government put in evidence to show that the pension was obtained and that the widow of the soldier never received and that the widow of the soldier never received the certificate or the pension maney, but that a colored woman named Margaret Wilson testified to personaling Sallie Vaughn, and that George Borrow and Samuel Craig obtained the check and money, she being allowed a few dollars for the service that she rendered. Without concluding the testimony the trial was adjourned until Monday next.

night was a decided success. The audience was large and appreciative and the young folies acquitted themselves with great credit. Mr. George Buckingham, who kindly volunteered for the part of Raiph Rackstraw, was in splaudid voice and brought down the house. Miss Sutherland, the young lady who inaugurated this most successful representation or the "Children's Pinafore" ever seen in this city, deserves much praise for her remarkable tact in the management of the young amazeur troupe. The performance will be repeated this afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is reported that the children will then have an evation. Among the characters which are regarded as remarkably successful in the representation are little Miss Ashley as Buttercup, Miss Runlett as Josephene, Miss Katle Clarke as Hebe Master Bacon as Dick Deadeye, and Tom Clark as Sir Joseph, who is immense in his part.

National Theatre-French Opera. National Theatre—French Opera.

Heroid's ever-charming opera, "Le Fre Aux Clercs" (the Priests' Meadow), was performed in very good style by Grau's French Opera Company last evening. It is not well known here, and this probably accounts for a rather light stiendance. The music is airy and melodious and bears some family resemblance to that of 'Zampa,' and it is to be regretted that it cannot be heard at least once many closes. The principal parts were all in good hands—Mile. Leroux-Edward as Isabelle. Mile, Augele as Marguerite. Mile, Gregoire as Nicette, and M. Capoul ass Merzy, winning repeated applause by their artistic rendition of the parts as signed them. This afternoon at the matince "Girofla-Girofla," with Mile. Paola Marie as Girofle-Girofla-Mile.
